

Sinclair Broadcasting's brazen decision to force its local affiliates to preempt news coverage with a blatantly political film in the days before the presidential election underscores the need to strengthen laws limiting media consolidation. Please act appropriately to prevent or censure this abuse of the right to use public air waves.